For many others of you, this graduation will be the next step in your life to a pursue your education – to the daunting task of preparing for the career you want to pursue.

But for all of you, as you return the caps and gowns you're wearing today and take your certificates and diplomas home, remember this: The diploma you receive and what you have learned in Raffles today is your insurance policy with the premium paid in full by your hard work over the past 2 years. The value of that policy depends on how much effort you put into your education and what you do with it as you go on.

I wish you the best for your lives – embrace the challenges and get ahead of the change. Find your purpose and take your share in shaping the new world. WOMEN IN THEIR PRIME YEARS

像花一樣的年紀 is a metaphor in Chinese. It basically means "young and beautiful and in someone's prime", just like blooming flowers. The phase is referred to either young women or men between the age of 16 to 20, however in my personal opinion, age has nothing to do with many values in the world, but only with time. No matter how old you are, you should not be defined, you are always in your flowering period.
